An Explanation of our Box Office Policies

Standing room only, or saints, revolutionists, outcasts according to the ticket buyer when he gets his two on the aisle, two behind a post, or two so far to the side that he is more out of the theatre than in it. But SRO are the letters we like. Every theatre aims to sell out; each theatre-goer aims to get the best seat for his money. Inevitably one of us is to be disappointed. What to do?

What we have to say applies equally to mail, phone, or over-the-counter sales. However, we would like to note that over-the-counter, mail or phone orders, in that position, are the most satisfactory to both the buyer and the seller. Naturally the earlier purchaser gets his choice of seats; he will have his two on the aisle. Buying tickets a week in advance is the best rule to follow here. We have no preferential list or favored few. We are here to provide good theatre and make money.

We are open every day (except Sunday) from 10:00 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. When you come to the box office personally we are able to serve you best. We can explain what we have. You can make your decision according to what you wish to spend. And if necessary and feasible we can show you the theatre with its various locations. Mail orders are handled exactly as you state. When you ask us to give you the best we have for the money you want to spend we do just that. Mail orders are handled immediately. When the exact amount accompanies the mail order we forward the tickets in the next mail. If not, we make the necessary reply, holding the tickets for you at the box office.

Phone orders are filled according to what we have available when you phone. It is important to note that although we have two phones (385-3911 & 3912) we are limited. The ticket buyer should know what he wants in regard to location, price, and date of performance. And it is wise to have alternate choices so that we can avoid disappointing you. It sometimes, often, happens that the phone rings, we answer and prattle off our litanies of prices, locations, dates, stars, and shows; but what happens? The caller simply does not know. He wants to see the show . . . period. When? How many seats? Price? Sometimes we get things settled.

When a ticket has been paid for, it belongs to the holder whether he uses it or not. He might just come for the curtain calls. When your tickets are ordered through certain hotels, motels, or guest houses, they are guaranteed. This guarantee is equivalent to cash. The guaranteed tickets are held for you indefinitely. You are obliged to pay for them whether you use them or not.

All other reservations for unpaid tickets are held until 1:00 p.m. for matinees; 6:00 p.m. for evenings. When reservations are not picked up by the specified time, they are immediately cancelled and promptly sold. When you find that you are going to be late, a reconfirmation of your reservation will hold it a little longer. These time extensions are handled on an individual basis.

Each evening we are obliged to cancel tickets. In order to pick up a cancellation you must be here in the lobby of the theatre from 7:45 on. Your name with your ticket request is put on a list in the order of your appearance. Cancellations are then disposed of according to the first, second, etc. name on the list.

Since our policy is not to make exchanges or refunds, we underscore this: Please examine your tickets carefully and immediately. Mistakes are easy; corrections difficult. We are here to serve you, and in serving you we serve ourselves. We want you to have the location you want at the price you wish to pay. If our seats are good, fair, or poor we tell you.

We hope this explanation of our policies will result in a better understanding by you, our valued patrons.

Sincerely,

Charles Mooney

Next Week at the Playhouse

Van Johnson, who delighted Playhouse audiences a few summers back in "A Thousand Clowns," returns to Dennis to star in the frivolous French farce "Boeing-Boeing." This fast moving comedy relates the amourous adventures of an airline pilot who successfully juggles three airline hostesses to the rhythm of the international timetable. Peter Pagan, always a Playhouse favorite, plays the part of the helpful friend. Visit the box office during intermission to make reservations for this fun show, or make them by phoning 385-3911.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Cape Playhouse wishes to express its sincere appreciation for furnishings and incidental properties used in last week's production of "Carousel" to: Mr. Ed Boyle, Dennis; Chillingsworth, East Brewster; Mr. and Mrs. F. Stanley Clemence, Dennis; Mrs. Louise Slezak, Dennis; Mr. and Mrs. McDowell Hosley, Dennis.

We are indebted to the Cape Cod School of Ballet and Theatre Arts (Ruth E. Feely Studio of Dance) of Hyannis and South Yarmouth whose students Paul Dugener, Mark Dugener, Debbie Pierce, Patricia Whitehead and Beth Babineau played some of the Snow children in "Carousel."

Another Gold Key Subscriber's Memories

Mrs. Robert MacGregor of Orleans has these Playhouse memories: "As a Gold Key Playhouse subscriber, I think my favorite memories were during the first few years of World War II when Miss Gertrude Lawrence formed a chapter of Bundles for Britain and then the Theatre Wing. We had garden parties in Mrs. Rich's garden in Yarmouth and current stars at the Playhouse helped us make money by entertaining the guests, selling their autographs, and selling British souvenirs such as pins, cigarette cases, etc. I seem to remember Joe E. Brown best at these affairs but all the top stars of the time did their bit. When the United States entered the war, the Cape Playhouse went dark for a couple of summers."

For Your Dining Pleasure

For a real Cape Cod dinner — ocean fresh seafood served as you watch the picturesque fishing boats and various pleasure craft in the Harbor — visit THOMPSON BROS. CLAM BAR on Snow Inn Wharf, Harwichport, or on Route 6, North Truro. In addition to the finest of seafood, various meat dishes are also offered, at moderate prices, all of which adds up to a must for the next family treat.

Want a real array of delectables to choose from for dinner? CAPE COD RANCH, off Bonehill Road in Cummaquid, offers over 40 items of both hot and cold dishes in their magnificent Smorgasbord served nightly from 6 to 10 p.m. With all you can eat and Dessert and Coffee for $3.95, you can count on an enjoyable repast within the family budget.

For the best in Cantonese food and exotic oriental cocktails, stop at the DRAGON LITE RESTAURANT, 620 Main Street in Hyannis. Open from 11:30 a.m. until 3 a.m., the Dragon Lite is prepared to serve the busy shoppers with luncheon specials, conveniently priced at 95c, pre-theater dinners expertly prepared by Chinese Chefs, or after theater cocktails served in the beautiful lounge. And for orders to take out, call 775-9494. Whatever your dining need, whether summer visitor or native, stop at the year round Dragon Lite Restaurant.

THE LANDFALL is ideally situated for the enticement and pleasure of visitors and residents alike. The intriguing restaurant overlooks Great Harbor in Woods Hole and whether you stop in for luncheon, dinner or one of the famous cocktails served from a ship's bar, the harbor activity is a constant source of viewing delight. Naturally, the many seafood specialties of the Cape are popular and featured here but there is a long list of other selections including big and medium steaks for those who do not fancy foods from the sea. Delicious food, served by delightful young men and women, combine to make THE LANDFALL a "must" for visitors. Of special interest this year — a new outdoor clam bar.

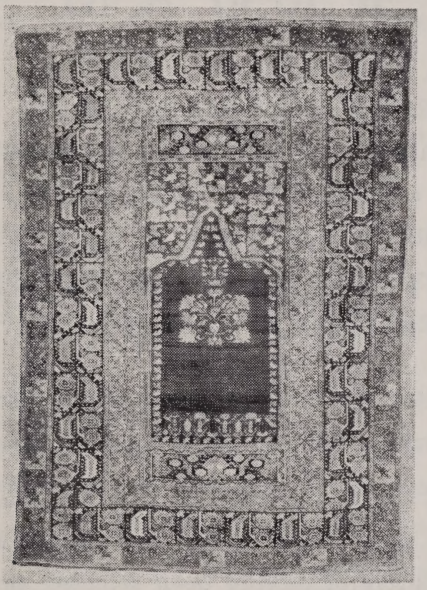
IMPORTANT UNRESERVED AUCTION OF ANTIQUE ISLAMIC RUGS

FROM THE ESTATE OF THE LATE ANDREW R. DOLE

of Oak Park, Illinois

THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1970 at 10:30 A.M.

By order of Elizabeth F. Cheney, Legatee.



Over 100 antique silk and wool rugs of great quality. These rugs were collected by the late Andrew R. Dole during the early years of this century. They represent one of the most important collections of carpets ever offered at auction in the United States.

Absolutely no additions have been made to the sale. All buyers will receive, if they so desire, a certification that the rug or rugs they purchase were part of the Dole Collection.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

GEORGE GOBEL (Allan Felix) gained top international stardom with his television exposure which started in 1952. In those early days of TV he made guest appearances on virtually every top-rated variety show, including more than forty "guest shots" on The Garry Moore Show. Immediately following seven consecutive appearances on NBC-TV's The Saturday Night Revue in 1954, that network presented him with his own series, The George Gobel Show. For the next three years his show was the top half-hour comedy program of the nation. It was so successful, in fact, that for the next two years he starred in a one-hour program for the same network. Concluding this five years of building audiences and fans, CBS signed Gobel to alternate in a comedy format series with Jack Benny. Since 1960 he has averaged a dozen or more guest appearances on various shows on the three networks. During the 1968-69 season, for instance, he was seen guesting with Jackie Gleason, Carol Burnett , the Smothers Brothers, Red Skelton, and Dean Martin. No stranger to the legitimate theatre, Gobel made his Broadway stage debut in 1961 starring in a musical adaptation of George Abbott's "Three Men On a Horse," retitled "Let It Ride." He also toured for a year in the National Company of Neil Simon's comedy hit "The Odd Couple" and has appeared in summer stock in "A Funny Thing Happened On the Way to the Forum," "Bye, Bye Birdie," and "The Impossible Years." "Lonesome George" and his manager-partner are involved in numerous business ventures, including a major interest in the nation-wide chain of Ramanda Inn Motor Hotels.

DAN FRAZER (Dick Christie) can currently be seen in the film, "Tick . . . Tick . . . Tick . . ." starring Frederick March and Jim Brown. In Woody Allen's film "Take the Money and Run" he plays the Psychiatrist, Dr. Epstein, and he is remembered as the cynical and unbelieving priest. Father Murphy, in the award-winning film, "Lilies of the Field" which starred Sidney Poitier. Among other films he has appeared in are "Counterpoint," "Lord Luvaduck," and "Requiem For a Heavyweight." He has appeared on Broadway in "Goodbye Charlie" with Lauren Bacall, "Once More With Feeling" with Arlene Francis, "Who Was That Lady" and two seasons ago appeared at London's Palladium in " Golden Boy" with Sammy Davis Jr. In television, he has appeared on over four hundred shows among which are Dr. Kildare, Run For Your Life, The Untouchables, Sergeant Bilko, McHale's Navy, The FBI, The Road West, My Favorite Martian, Route 66, Defenders, Playhouse 90, Philco and a number of afternoon soap operas, including The Secret Storm as George. He is the father of Susan Frazer, currently dancing with the National Ballet Washington, D. C.

LAURA MAY LEWIS (Linda Christie) played the role of Gwendolyn Pigeon, the English girl, for over a year in the National Company of "The Odd Couple" with George Gobel and Phil Foster. She repeated the role at the Bucks County and Mineola Playhouses opposite Eddie Bracken. Off-Broadway audiences saw her this past season in the musical revue, "Unfair to Goliath," written by Israel's famed humorist, Ephraim Kishom. Prior to that she was featured in a revival of "Accent on Youth" and "Never Say Die." Her many summer stock roles have ranged from Nancy Twinkle in "Little Mary Sunshine" to Grandma in Albee's "The American Dream." Satirical revues have taken her to the Madeira Club in Provincetown, Massachusetts, the Westport Playhouse Player's Tavern and to the famed Roostertail in Detroit. On television, Miss Lewis is a familiar face in the kitchens and supermarkets of television commercials.

BOB SACCHI (Bogart) has appeared many times in recent years on daytime television serials, talk shows, and radio shows. His stage career started at Iona College and New York University where he received B. S. and M. S. degrees in Arts and Finance Administration. While in college he appeared in a variety of dramatic and musical productions and continued through in summer stock and local companies. Some of the plays in which he has performed are "Mister Roberts," "Detective Story," "Cat On a Hot Tin Roof," "The Petrified Forest," and "Guys and Dolls." In addition, he has appeared in films, industrials, and commercials both in this country and in the film studios of Italy and France. Mr. Sacchi has made many night club appearances with his routine on Humphrey Bogart.

ANNE LINDEN (Nancy) has appeared in more than twelve Off-Broadway plays.

JOAN ABRAHAMS (Sharon Lake) has just finished two shows for Equity Dinner Theatre in which she played Pat in "Peterpat" and Susan in "The Little Hut," a British comedy. Her vast variety of acting experience includes Maggie in "Cat On a Hot Tin Roof," Serafina in "The Rose Tattoo," and Charlotte Corday in "Marat-Sade." Besides her seven seasons of summer stock, Miss Abrahams has been seen on television commercials and in a number of films, including "The Out of Towners," "Twinky" and "The Landlord," and "Little Murders" with Elliot Gould. In addition to her training at Boston University where she received a B. A., she has studied acting with Gene Frankel, speech with Evangeline Machlin, voice at the New England Conservatory and dance with Jan Kessler.

LEIGH CAROLE (Go-Go Girl) has recently completed a tour with the National Company of "Canterbury Tales." Previously she co-starred in a nightclub revue which played Las Vegas, New Jersey, and Miami Beach. Miss Carole has also appeared in the National Company of "The Roar of the Greasepaint," and in summer stock productions of "Funny Girl," "Sweet Charity," "Stop the World," "Carousel," "Bye, Bye Birdie," and "Music Man."

SAMANTHA DOANE (Dream Sharon and Barbara) has two seasons of summer stock to her credit and one season with The Louisville Shakespeare Festival where she did Polina in "The Winter's Tale," Calpurnia in "Julius Caesar," and Helena in "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Graduating from the University of Kentucky with a B. A. in Theatre Arts, Miss Doane performed many diversified roles such as Ann Boleyn in "Royal Gambit" and Rose in "The Room." She recently graduated from the Neighborhood Playhouse School of Theatre where she trained with Sanford Meisner. Other training has been with Nikos Psachoropoulos at the Circle in the Square Theatre.

ENID EDMAN (Gina) just returned from Baltimore where she played Sandy in "A Thousand Clowns." Earlier in the season she starred in a pre-Broadway try-out of "The Crack of Doom," a comedy in which she played a character based loosely on the Washington seeress, Jean Dixon. She has appeared in repertory and resident theatres and with Tom Eyen's Theatre of the Eye at the Cafe La Mama. Miss Edman is a graduate of the Boston University Theatre Department.

LYSSA HIGGINS (Vanessa) has appeared at the Woodstock Playhouse and with the Kenley Players in Ohio. Her film credits include "No Reflection," "Pursuit of Happiness" and "The Magic Garden of Stanley Sweetheart." On television she has been seen on CBS in "Contact" and on WQED Educational Theater as a dancer and fashion model. Miss Higgins is a graduate of Sarah Lawrence College.

EDA ZAHL (Intellectual Girl) understudied and appeared on Broadway this winter as the revolutionary daughter in Art Buchwald's "Sheep On the Runway." Off-Broadway she assisted Elaine May on "Adaptation-Next" and will appear in Miss May's new Paramount film, "A New Leaf." After graduating from Bennington College she first worked at the Berkshire Theatre Festival.

JEREMIAH MORRIS (Director), a former professor in the Theatre Arts Department at Boston University, is the grandson of the renowned Hungarian stage director Zoltan Magarchek. Mr. Morris' directorial credits include the American premiere of Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta "The Grand Duke." He has directed on and off-Broadway and several summer tours working with such stars as Eva Marie Saint, William Bendix, Yvonne DeCarlo, Jackie Mason and Chester Conklin.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

WOODY ALLEN, one of today's leading comedians, was born in Brooklyn. While still in high school he wrote and sent jokes to newspaper columnists, and soon found himself giving materials to Peter Lind Hayes and Herb Shriner on radio and television. He then added Sid Caesar, Art Carney, Kaye Ballard, Carol Channing, Garry Moore and Buddy Hackett to his stable of clients. His first film, "What's New Pussycat?," which he wrote and in which he starred, is one of the biggest successes in screen history. His play "Don't Drink the Water" which was seen at the Playhouse last season was a Broadway hit in 1966 and was recently made into a film with Jackie Gleason and Estelle Parsons.

WHAT TO SEE ON CAPE COD
